

PicoCooler Vision

Open the door to improved consumer convenience

Provide your services to untapped locations with PicoCooler Vision

This large capacity smart cooler creates an effortless unattended retail experience through automatic product recognition capabilities. Pair high security with product diversity to delight customers while improving your bottom line.

Stock more products

Increase your product facings and quantities through a spacious, five-shelf refrigerated point of sale. Reduce stockouts while satisfying your busiest locations

Secure new locations

Confidently sell in semi-public locations like hospitals, hotels, college campuses, and more. PicoCooler Vision restricts access until consumers present their preferred cashless payment method.

Provide frictionless checkout

As consumers make their selection, a combination of computer vision and artificial intelligence accurately charges for selected products. Make it easy to grab, go, and enjoy.

Optimize your merchandise

Transition from spirals to shelves, showcasing bottled beverages alongside savory sandwiches and fresh items. Take advantage of computer vision's flexibility to offer greater product diversity, from chilled to ambient products. Increase your revenues by selling in-demand items via a high capacity, secure environment.
